Term Four - Week 1

The Incredible Years®

Parents, teachers, and children training series

The Incredible Years® is a series of interlocking, evidence-based programs for parents, children, and teachers, supported by over 30 years of research. The goal is to prevent and treat young children's behaviour problems and promote their social, emotional, and academic competence.

The programs are used worldwide in schools and mental health centers, and have been shown to work across cultures and socioeconomic groups. At KKPS teachers have been trained to use the strategies within their classrooms to help promote positive behaviours.

Alongside the program for teachers lies a program for parents, and we are fortunate to have this course running locally thanks to Ngāti Rehia.

What is Incredible Years Parenting?

The Incredible Years kaupapa is a parenting program aimed at helping parents:

- To have a better relationship with their children
- Stimulate their children's development
- Gain skills to feel more confident about their parenting
- Have a positive and nurturing parenting style
- Lessen harsh parenting practices
- Establish better relationships with the child's teacher

The Incredible Years Parenting Program focuses on:

How to play with your child
The value of effective praise
Using rewards to motivate children
How to set limits with your children
How to handle mis-behaviour by ignoring, distracting and redirecting

Logical and natural consequences
Creative problem solving

Incredible Years Parenting Program methods are:

Based on the way children develop
Trialled and tested and have been proven to work with most children and cultures including New Zealand

Encouraging a nurturing relationship in the process of learning about children's behaviours

Parents work together to find solution that suits them best
Parents discover new skills they can use

Parents in the group are encouraged to support each other

If you are interested in taking part in this program or have further questions you can contact Ariana from Ngāti Rehia directly: Call her 09 401 6399 or email araian@ngatirehia.co.nz or email the admin office at KKPS admin@kkps.school.nz.

KORU Value of the Fortnight: Classroom Treaties and Expectations

As we begin the final term, it is a great opportunity to review our expectations of KORU Kids in the classroom. At the beginning of the year, each class created their own 'Class Treaty'. We'll be reviewing this agreement and what it looks like, sounds like and feels like to be a KORU Kid within our classrooms.

SENIOR SCHOOL MURAL

Please help

We desperately need some helpers to paint the sealer onto the ply, so our students can start on the amazing Erika Pearce murals to go outside the senior classes. You don't need to be an artist!

Ultimate Cutting shop has kindly cut the 13 sheets of plywood down to 900mm x 2440mm. Thank you to Kerikeri Colour Centre for supplying the paint for this artwork and Placemakers for supplies. If you have an extra couple of hours to help please email Brenda if you can help: brendaf@kkps.school.nz

Class of the fortnight Room 22 with Miss Simpson

Production - No Stone Unturned:

This week in Room 22, we have been reflecting back on the production we performed last term. Here are some of the feelings we had on show night!

We peeked under the black curtain seeing lots and lots of people filling up the chairs. One by one, more people came into the hall making my fear and nerves grow higher. Before I knew it, there were 250 people sitting down in the audience! I was talking to Paige about the show and we were trying to practice the curtain cues. I was in charge of the curtain for the whole night and knew I couldn't mess it up!

- Luca Klomp

Butterflies emerged in my stomach. Tonight was going to be the big night in front of 250 people. I couldn't go back now. The scene rooms were flooded with loads of children - Room 25 in particular. As each scene ended, more children were added into Room 25 ready for the final scene. Gaining more and more butterflies in my stomach. I tried to hold back my fear and anxiety. I could hear the loud voices of other students in the room. The distraction of drawing on scrap paper was helpful; it made me less nervous. Suddenly, I heard Scene 4 being called up on the walkie-talkie. My heart started beating faster by the second. The muffled voices of teachers through the walkie-talkies could be heard. Walking slowly up the tall, long ramp. I could hear the opening of Aotearoa. As soon as the music ended, Room 22 walked in like silent mice to make sure the audience wouldn't hear us...

Hats

In term 4, we all need to wear hats at school to protect us from the sun. Here is a short poem we wrote to help us all remember.

A hat is an accessory like bracelets, hair clips and shoes.
It adds a special touch to the clothing that you choose.
Bucket hats are better for keeping your skin safe,
If you do not wear one, you might get a sunburnt face!

A hat is an accessory, an extension of your face.
It can shield you from elements or keep your hair in place!
A hat is good for Summer and other reasons too,
When you go out to play, now you know what to do!

Right here at Kerikeri Primary School,
We're lucky because our hats are cool!
They are bold and blue and bright,
And help us stay safe from harmful sunlight!

If you want to keep playing in the beautiful sun,
With your friends having lots of fun,
Remember when you get out of bed,
To pack that bucket hat for your head!

Poem by: Willow Reid, Ellie Page-Wood, and Jordyn Dickey

Getting out of the car and walking to the classroom, I went to check myself in. I was excited to perform but I was nervous to sing and dance in front of 250 people, and my mum and dad. Walking up to the ramp, I could smell all of the home made food that parents had made. Sadly, I couldn't eat any of it. When I got to the top of the ramp, I heard the actors talking loudly on stage. The teacher opened the door when they were ready for us to come in. I was scared, excited, and a little worried. I walked down into the little room on the side of the hall...
