

A Word From Our Principal ...

Kia ora koutou, Dobri dan, Bonjour, Hallo, Hola, Zdravstvuyte, Nǎn hǎo, Salve, Konnichiwa, Namaste, Guten Tag, Olá, Anyoung haseyo, Asalaam alaikum, Shwmae, G'day,

The cold weather has certainly made its presence known this week, with a frosty start greeting us yesterday and this morning. As temperatures drop, seasonal illnesses tend to spike, and we are currently seeing a rise in Influenza A and RSV (Respiratory Syncytial Virus) across our community.

RSV is a common respiratory virus that affects the lungs and breathing passages, particularly impacting young children and older adults. Both flu and RSV share common symptoms like fever, coughing, and fatigue, so please take extra care to rest, stay warm, and seek medical advice if you or your family members feel unwell.

During these chillier months, looking out for one another makes all the difference. Take a moment to check in on your neighbours, elderly residents, or anyone living alone. A quick phone call, a doorstep chat, or offering to pick up a few groceries can bring enormous comfort to someone staying indoors to avoid the cold.

Thank you for continuing to support and care for our community.

Enjoy the weekend everyone!

Ngā mihi,
Dr Sarah Brown
